The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition be by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. Together words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500) five hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force [illegible] A safe Counsellor for bankrupts must bear in head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their homes and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 66 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

The above is a fair specimen of the kind of ballot to be cast at the approaching election by the Conservatives.

THE WHITE AND BLACK MILITIA!

REMEMBER that, under the new Constitution, the General Assembly has no power to pass any law, which makes distinctions between whites and blacks, in enrolling the militia. The Radicals, in the face of the positive refusal of the Convention to insert a proviso in the Constitution, authorizing the General Assembly to make such a distinction in enrolling the militia, deny this.

The General Assembly cannot pass such a law. It it wanted to do so, the Courts, under the new Constitution, would be compelled to pronounce such a law unconstitutional. If the negroes were to demand enrolment with the whites, as many of them would do, the Courts would be obliged to sustain them in it, if the new Constitution is ratified!

BRIBERY AND COERCION.

Two negro candidates, Schenck and Smith, in Mecklenburg, tried, first by bribery and then by coercion, a few days ago, to induce or compel Jno. Henderson, a colored Conservative, to pledge himself to vote for the Radical ticket. Henderson told the rascals that they "had not money enough to buy him,"—and a personal collision came near being the consequence. The only persons in the State, who are now disposed, or who are attempting, to BRIBE or to FRIGHTEN voters, are RADICALS. This is a fact capable of proof. The "Loyal Leagues" are grand bribing machines. Not only that, but they are engines of terror. Those who still adhere to them dare not call their souls their own. They are but so much clay in the hands of the treasonable manipulations of these dark lantern concerns!

WHITES AND BLACKS IN SCHOOLS!

The Conservatives of the late Convention urged upon that body to give the General Assembly the power to organize the University and the Public Schools in such a manner as to allow separate schools for blacks and whites. The Convention refused to do it, by a strict party vote. Hence, the General Assembly CANNOT ESTABLISH SEPARATE SCHOOLS for blacks and whites, if it were so disposed. Will the white people of the State consent to send their sons and daughters to the same schools with the negroes? Never.

THE STATE REGISTRATION.

Owing to the few registration precincts in many of the large counties, many persons have been unable to register. The registration in Wake has been very meagre. This was owing, in a great measure, to the fact that many persons, in order to register, must have travelled from 20 to 25 miles.—This, we understand, several persons, aged men, had to do, and to walk the distance, in order to accomplish it.

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES? That is one of the issues.

WATCH THE POLLS!

Whatever Gen. Meade may have done, that is arbitrary, or offensive, or unnecessary, he deserves great credit for the steps which he has taken, and the orders which he has issued, for the prevention of fraud in the approaching elections in that State. He has directed Registrars to receive the votes of those whose names have been stricken from the lists without proper cause; he has promulgated an order directly aimed at frauds by Registrars; requiring that negroes are not to be FORCED by either party to vote, but must be let alone; and that, when the votes are counted out, there shall be present, to superintend the counting, a respectable and intelligent man of each party. These orders are admirable, and we could wish very much that Gen. Canby had issued some of similar purport. Gen. Meade has acted wisely for his own reputation, and fairly towards the people.

No such steps having been taken by our District Commander, it devolves upon ourselves to make such arrangements as will provide against double-dealing, ballot-stuffing, false counting, or any other of the numerous frauds which will doubtless be attempted by some of the Radical poll-holders. Let one or more Conservatives of intelligence and firmness be always at the polls, if admissible, (and we take it for granted that no poll-holder, who intends to act "upon the square," will object,) to see that everything is conducted fairly.

As we suggested, a few days since, the poll holders and conductors of elections, themselves, might, if they choose, relieve themselves from all imputation or suspicion of unfairness, by requesting one respectable person of each party to be present when the votes are counted. Such a course has always been usual in elections in North Carolina, under the old and honored customs. Give us a FAIR BALLOT, and we will DEFEAT THE INFAMOUS CONSTITUTION and the meagrel ticket OVERWHELMINGLY!

P. S. Since the foregoing was written, we have learned some facts, which are of importance in this connection, and which exhibit a desire and determination, on the part of Gen. Canby, to secure fairness in the election.

The attention of Gen. Canby was officially called to this whole subject, and to the particular plan since suggested by Gen. Meade, some time ago, but the suggestion did not reach him, until after his orders had been issued.

Gen. Canby says that he believes that the care which has been bestowed upon it, and the efficiency of the plan which he has adopted, will prevent all grounds of apprehension as to any unfairness in the coming election. The readiness with which he can detect any error or unfairness, relieves the matter of doubt, as his purpose is to have nothing but a fair election.

In many Counties, in the last election, many persons were prevented from voting, because of the small number of precincts, at which polls were opened. The reason assigned for this is, that the number of qualified persons to hold the elections was so small, that they were compelled to unite several precincts together. To prevent this in the coming election, Gen. Canby has authorized the Post Commanders, in every instance where qualified men can be procured, to have the polls opened at EVERY PRECINCT. If, therefore, qualified men can be had, let the people suggest their names to the Post Commanders, that the voting places may be increased!

WHO RECOMMENDED DEWEESE?

We find that the appointment of Deweese, as Provost Judge, astonishes every one. If Gen. Canby had appointed Tourgee a Judge, in the place of Judge Fowle, the public would not have been more surprised, than at this appointment. The question is asked who recommended him? We judge that no one would have signed such a recommendation, but Holden, Coleman or Harris, men so intimately identified in partyism and business with him as to preclude the belief that they would consult fitness and propriety in such matters. The appointment of a man already holding a United States office of trust and profit, and actively seeking election to the United States Congress, when there are so many other men better qualified and more needy than Deweese, can hardly be accounted for, except upon the supposition that Gen. Canby has been misled by the representations of interested persons.

In this matter, we have no personal interest, whatever, nor are we influenced by any partizan preference. We expected the appointment of a Radical, but there are others of that party, whose selection would have given far greater satisfaction.

We hope the people of the District will bear this thing in mind at the election, in selecting a member of Congress. The claims upon the Radicals and Republicans of Mr. Hedrick, a native of the State and a man intimately connected with the organization of the Republican party, are far greater than those of Deweese. Conservatives, of course, will vote against the Constitution and for Mr. Williams, of Granville.

THE WHITE MEN of North Carolina are GOING TO VOTE. Many of them, through fastidious scruples, would not go to the polls, before, on account of the crowds of negroes that huddled about the voting places and impeded the way. They will be restrained by no such scruples, now. We know that every effort will be made, in localities where the negro vote predominates, to interfere with, and render disagreeable or dangerous, the exercise of their privileges by white men. They may be insulted, but they feel that they have a solemn, sacred duty to discharge, and they will do it AT ALL HAZARDS!

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

PHOTOGRAPH NO. 8.

DARKEN AT CATALINE.—By Cicero.

Similis non Idem.

PROPHETIC AND DESCRIPTIVE.

"At length, Romans, we have driven out, discarded, and pursued, with the keenest reproaches, L. Cataline, intoxicated with fury, breathing mischief, impiously plotting the destruction of his country, and threatening to lay waste this city. Abiit, excessit, evasit, erupit! No longer shall that monster, that prodigy of mischief, plot our ruin. We have gained a clear conquest over this chief and ringleader of domestic broils. His threatening dagger is no longer pointed at our breasts. He is now quite overthrown, and perceives himself impotent and despised, often casting back his eyes on this city, which he sees with regret, rescued from his destructive jaws; and which rejoices for having disgorged and rid herself of so pestilent a citizen.

Shall I say nothing of those his associates, who yet dissemble their treason, and continue to mingle in our Assemblies? I will show you, citizens, of what different sorts of men these forces consist. The first consists of those, who, having great possessions, are so passionately fond of the same, that they cannot bear the thought of confiscation. This, in appearance, is the most honorable class; but their intention and aim is the most infamous of all.

The next class consists of those who hope for power, and aspire to the chief management of public affairs; imagining that they shall obtain those honors by throwing the State into confusion, which they despair of during tranquility.

The third class consists of men of advanced age, but hardened in all the exercises of war. These have gained divers needy indigent rustics to their party by the hope of having schemes of rapine renewed—both being to be considered in the light of robbers and plunderers. Let them drop their frantic ambition, and think no more of dictatorship and proscriptions; for so deep an impression have the calamities of the times made on the State, that not only men, but the very beasts, would not bear a repetition of such outrages.

The fourth is a mixed, motley, mutinous tribe.

The fifth sort is a collection of ruffians of all kinds, whom I ask not to abandon Cataline, as knowing them to be inseparable.

In such a conflict and struggle as we are engaged in, were even human aid to fail, will not the immortal Gods enable illustrious virtue to triumph over such complicated vice?"

THE WAY IT IS DONE.—The Editor of the Wilmington Journal visited the sessions of the Board, in that city, while registration was in progress. He says:

"We saw enough to convince us that history, which teaches with unerring certainty that two distinct races cannot live in the same country, under the same government, with equal political privileges, would soon repeat itself here. The negroes present were impertinent and insolent to the last degree, and perjured themselves to secure registration with an effrontery and boldness which beggars description. We saw men swear that boys of sixteen and seventeen years of age were twenty-one, who could hardly count so many on their fingers."

BLACKS AND WHITES MARRYING!

The Conservatives, in the late Convention, contended that the General Assembly should be empowered to prevent, by law, blacks and whites from intermarrying.—The Radicals not only refused this, but adopted an ordinance legalizing all the marriages between blacks and whites, which had already taken place in the State. Miscegenation must follow such action. The white men and women of this State should put their faces against this horrible thing!

WHITE CHILDREN AND NEGRO MASTERS!

During the late Convention, the Conservatives insisted that the General Assembly should provide, by law, that white children should not be bound out as apprentices to negroes. The Radicals REFUSED to do so, by a strict party vote. Will the whites consent to this? NEVER.

THE X. P. G., we learn, is terribly discouraged. He came home, after the most inglorious failure of a canvass ever heard of in North Carolina, leaving important appointments to take care of themselves, only to hear that the Congressional Radicals were discussing the propriety of inviting him to withdraw altogether. Congress don't want him and the people won't have him! Was there ever so lamentable a case before?

IT is a bad thing to be in bad company. We learn that an old lady of the county having the Radical candidate for Sheriff pointed out to her, some time ago, declared, as she peered through her spectacles at Tim, "Why! upon my word, he looks like the very man that took all my things, when the bummers were along!"

WE LEARN that the X. P. G. says that Gen. Canby ordered Gov. Worth to pay the expenses of the mongrel Convention out of the State Treasury, and that, if he had disobeyed, he would have been removed.—This is false. Gen. Canby's order was directed to the State Treasurer. Gov. Worth had nothing to do with the matter, in any manner, shape or form. Mr. Battle, under the circumstances, properly obeyed the order.

THE TRUE SPIRIT.—An elderly citizen of Bladen, upwards of sixty years of age, who was nefariously refused his right of registering, the other day, walked a distance of over fifty miles to Wilmington, to lay the matter before Col. Frank, the Post Commandant. This is a sample of the spirit which is now inspiring the white men of North Carolina. With such a spirit animating them, there is no such word as fail!

GRAND RALLY AND TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.—There will be a grand rally and torchlight procession in Salisbury, on Monday night next, the 20th inst., under the auspices of the young men of the Salisbury Conservative club. In the procession will be borne a number of illustrative transparencies. Able speakers will be present to address the people on the occasion.

THE WILMINGTON Star estimates the population of Wilmington at 20,000.

MORRISVILLE, April 14, '68.

Gentlemen:—Agreeably to previous notice, Calvin J. Rogers arrived at Morrisville, to-day, and lo! where were his hearers? Their absence will be accounted for from the fact that the Bankruptcy man and his friend, the great down Easter, Galloway, (nigger,) were not on hand.

There being no Radicals present to hear Rogers, he prevailed with us few Conservatives, that live here, to listen to a few remarks of his. Well, we did so, and I am really glad we did, for in listening to Mr. R. we found him to be almost a Conservative. He declared openly that if he had been in the Convention, he would have voted for THAT AMENDMENT, offered by P. Durham, Esq. He also declared openly that he would have voted against the bill paying interest on the old State bonds. He said that, if elected, he would oppose a uniform system of Public Schools, and if he will only vote against the Constitution, he will then be as good a Conservative as any of us, (though, the Lord knows, we don't want him!)

I learned from a reliable gentleman here, to-day, that in the (so-called) Union League, at Sorrell's, ten or twelve white men have withdrawn, within the last two days.

Yours,
J.

OLD GUILFORD ALIVE!!

GREENSBORO, April 14, 1868.

Messrs. Editors.—The good work is progressing. Hundreds all over the county are coming out and denouncing Holden and his miserable crew of mongrels. Respectable negroes are disgusted, and openly declare for the Conservative ticket and against the Constitution.

White men, fully aroused, have come forward, registered, and declare openly against the Constitution.

One old man, in his 92d. year, came five miles to register, and declares his purpose to vote for the Conservative ticket, saying that the Constitution, under which he lived and prospered "all his life," is good enough for his children, and grand children, and those that are to come after them.

Guilford will THUNDER on the days of the election, and the earthquake which will follow will move every dry bone in the bottom of the last carpet bag.

If the other counties of the State will do their duty, our majority will reach 50,000.

CONSERVATIVE.

POOL AND COLEMAN AT GRAHAM.

GRAHAM, N. C., April 14, 1868.

EDITORS SENTINEL.—Pool and Coleman spoke here to-day, to a crowd of about seventy-five whites and two hundred negroes. Two-thirds of the whites were Conservatives, who attended merely from curiosity, to hear the Radical arguments in favor of the Mongrel Constitution.

Our Reds expected that, owing to the very great favor with which Pool was received in this County, when he was a candidate for Governor, his appearance among the people, to advocate the so-called Republican principles, would make considerable accessions to that party, but they were sadly disappointed.

His speech was an extremely poor affair, more a rehearsal of his former political life than anything else, and he made no impression except to create a feeling of disgust among the white people.

They may send all of the Pools and Colemans they can scrape up, to let off the bile from their stomachs, to the people of Alamance, and still we intend to cast such a majority against their infamous concern, as to convince them that we are WHITE MEN, in color and principle.

Very respectfully,
X.

For the Sentinel.

CARD FROM R. F. MORRIS, ESQ.

DURHAM'S, April 14, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—A friend has just shown me an editorial in to day's Standard that requires a little notice at my hands.

I have neither "threatened Henderson Cain, nor driven him off from Durham's."—The whole statement is a sheer fabrication gotten up by Henderson or Gov. Holden. Henderson Cain is a very shabby negro—a sincere worshipper at the Holden shrine and capable, I should think, of such a falsehood. But "when a monkey is the God, what should we expect the priest to be?" I have no objection, and I think no decent man at Durham's wishes Henderson's vote for the White Man's ticket.

I was present at Durham's last Saturday. I heard no threats against "Mr. Guthrie", and the only disturbance he suffered was the dispersion of almost the entire crowd, white and black, when he arose to speak. Yet he can get more hearers here than Gov. H. The truth is, we are a law abiding people at Durham's. The white folks read the Sentinel, and the darkies laugh at the picturs in the "Holden Record." But we will not consent, even down to the darkey, to elect as Governor, a "plotter for the head of Abe Lincoln," and his "man Friday" to the Senate of N. C.

I make no special objection to the classic taste that applied the appellation of "Bob Morris" to myself. I am sometimes called, for short, by that name, just as the Governor is generally known by the euphonic term "Bill Holden." I shall not, however, imitate the example. As rudeness towards a negro should be avoided, so should it equally towards those that have stooped below them.

Very respectfully,
R. F. MORRIS.

A RADICAL THIEF ENDORSED BY HIS PARTY.

GRANVILLE Co., April 14, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—The Radicals of Granville have at length attained the grand climacteric of infamy and impudence, in endorsing a black thief for the suffrages of Radical voters.

Cuffee Mayo, nominee for the House of Representatives, was detected in the act of stealing a pistol from the counter of Messrs. Hunt & Bro., of Oxford. The Radical powwow, on Saturday, refused to erase his name from their ticket, at the suggestion of a Committee appointed to investigate the matter, and who reported adversely to the honesty of the "man and brother,"—thus setting the seal of public endorsation of crime, and impudently attempting to foist a scoundrel upon the good people of this county, as their representative and law giver. Such is Radicalism. Comment is unnecessary.

Every body must come to the Conservative Mass Meeting at Henderson, on Friday. We anticipate a glorious union of patriot spirits.

The Conservative people of old Granville were never more in earnest than now. The Radical ticket is weak and shaky.

Yours,
GRANVILLE.

RALLY! CONSERVATIVES!

There will be a meeting of the Conservatives of Raleigh, at the Court House, on Monday night, the 20th.

The Conservative county candidates will address the people and other speeches may be expected.

Let us have a glorious rally! It will be the last meeting of the campaign. Let us hope that our next meeting will be to congratulate one another on the defeat of the NEGRO RADICAL, TAXING CONSTITUTION!

FREE CONSERVATIVE BARBECUE AT SPIKES',

MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1868.

Good cheer! Good speaking! And a good time, generally! The people of the county are invited to attend.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call attention to the various announcements of our enterprising and clever young friends, Messrs. G. T. & W. C. Stronach, Market Square,—especially to the advertisement of the Gullet Cotton Gin, which is said to surpass all other machines of the kind.

Quotation for N. C. Bank Notes: Henry G. Kellogg, Banking House, Greensboro'.

The Patent Churn will be exhibited and Butter churned, at 11 o'clock, to-day, at W. H. Jones & Co's.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Notwithstanding the unpropitious condition of the weather, the Court-House was filled to overflowing with true and enthusiastic white men, last night.

The Hon. Sion H. Rogers, in a clear, compact and logical speech of an hour and a half, exposed the enormities of the infamous Constitution, and dissected, in trenchant and withering terms, the Mongrel ticket. This was one of Mr. Rogers' best efforts, and has added greatly to his already high reputation as an effective popular speaker. He was greeted throughout with every demonstration of gratification and approval.

After Mr. R. had concluded, loud calls brought forward Mr. H. T. Clawson, of the City, one of the nominees on the Conservative County ticket. Mr. Clawson is one of our most worthy mechanics,—a working man, who does not profess to be a talking man, but, on this occasion, he made an excellent, earnest and practical speech, which greatly pleased all who heard him. His tribute to the old Constitution of North Carolina was happily conceived and eloquently expressed.

The Club adjourned at a late hour, in fine spirits—to assemble again on Monday night, when a "good time' is anticipated.

BEWARE OF THE IMPOSTER.—A fellow came to this city, some days ago, who succeeded in imposing himself upon the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist ministers of this place, and, by false representations, also succeeded in obtaining material aid. His appearance has not been described to us, except that he was not a very prepossessing person. He represents himself as an Englishman, a graduate of Cambridge University, and that his father is a respectable physician in the city of London. His conversation and manners are such as to indicate that he is a scholar, and a man brought up in genteel society. He (as usual) said he was a Confederate, had "fit, bled and died," &c., and had since been incarcerated, and just gotten off from the Yankees. While with the Methodist minister he was a Methodist, to the Presbyterian minister he was a Presbyterian, and to the Baptist minister he was a Baptist, having been immersed by the great Spurgeon in London. So shrewd a fellow did not fail to "raise the wind." He called himself Charles Hunt, at one time, and Charles Hogg, at another, and professed to one, to be making his way to Greensboro, and, to another, to be anxious to reach Petersburg, where he had friends, who would do for him all he asked.

Messrs. Hudson and Hendren, of the Methodist Church, being so fully impressed by the sweet speech of the man, gave him a letter of endorsement, which they now recall, being satisfied, since he left the city, that he is a consummate imposter. Pass him around. He is shrewd enough, however, and smart enough, to change his entire programme, on entering a new place, and we regret that the gentlemen, who have been deceived by the fellow, have not furnished us a particular description of his person, which would at once lead to his detection, wherever he may go.

THE NOTORIOUS ASHLEY.—We learn that the notorious and infamous Jas. M. Ashley, of Ohio, is to speak in Raleigh to-night. We hope that no decent white or black man will go to hear him. His complicity with the Conover perjury has made him a stench in the nostrils of the better men of his own party.

MR. DAVID MACRAE, of Scotland, whose readings gave so much pleasure in this city, will shortly re-visit Petersburg.

NEWS FROM THE EAST.

We learn, from a private letter, to a citizen of this place, that the white men are alive to their duty in the East. Registration in Perquimans county results in about 50 majority for the whites. By the previous registration, the negroes exceeded the whites by a small majority. The venerable Henry Lilly, of Perquimans, aged 90 years, who has not voted in many years, rode a distance of 15 miles to register!—May Heaven bless the old man! Gilliam, Bagley, Skinner and Newby, as Canvassers, are doing their full duty in Perquimans.

Winston caught the infamous John R. French in Bertie. Under Winston's scathing reply, French attempted to slip out of the Court House, and Winston called to the colored men to "rope him, AND BRING HIM BACK!"

On Tuesday last, Littlefield, French and Co. were to speak in Hertford, Perquimans Co., dividing time with those able champions of the whites, E. D. Hall, W. N. H. Smith, D. M. Carter, H. A. Gilliam and P. H. Winston. We know they were skinned alive.

The Eastern boys call upon their mountain brothers to GIVE THE MAJORITY, AND THEY WILL HOLD THEIR OWN. They fight against heavier odds, but are forcing the enemy into the swamps and creeks. Let the mountains drive them into the infamous Brownlow's dominions!!

CATAWBA.

EXTRACT from a letter, dated

NEWTON, April 13, 1868.

"This county will give at least 1,000 majority against the infamous Constitution.—Our people are all turning out to register. Over two hundred have registered this week,—nearly every one against the Constitution. A great many negroes will vote against it.

Holden and his crew will be no where. Dr. Ellis, our candidate for the Legislature, has no opposition."

FORSYTHE.

The Editor of the Old North State, the Hon. Lewis Hanes, writes:

"Even in Radical Forsythe we learn that there is a tremendous "shaking among the dry bones." That honest man and pure patriot, Thos. J. Wilson, who was anxious to support the Constitution if it were bearable, and who had reserved his opinion of it until he could have an opportunity to study it closely, declared in a speech at Winston, on Wednesday, that after such study he found it intolerable, and was forced to go against it. This course of Mr. Wilson's will cause hundreds in Forsythe to vote against its ratification who were at first disposed to support it."

GREAT MASS MEETING IN WILMINGTON.—Notwithstanding the exceeding inclemency of the weather, the Mass Meeting in Wilmington, on Tuesday night, was immense. The ladies were out in large numbers. The Journal speaks in most glowing terms of the able and eloquent speeches of Col. Waddell and Hon. Geo. Davis. Of the address of the latter, the Journal says:

"The miserable child of the infamous Convention, with bold effrontery called a Constitution, was taken up and literally picked to pieces, and its revolting, sickening, degrading features held up to view in all their hideous nakedness and loathsome proportions. Manly was his vindication of the rights and principles of the freemen of North Carolina, and stinging, bitter and terrible were his sarcasms as expressed in relation to saintly, pious, disinterested Radical missionaries, who seek to rob us of our sustenance and degrade us and our posterity. Eloquent was his defence of our honored and noble dead whom our hyena-like enemies have endeavored to defile by their polluting touch, and reverently were their sacred memories alluded to. During the whole of the address the audience was as it were under a spell, and brought to tears by the pathetic eloquence used, or made to laugh unrestrainedly at his satirical remarks."

GOOD NEWS.—The Wilmington Journal says that the whites are turning out in large numbers and registering their names, along the Wilmington & Charlotte Railroad, while the negroes are adding but little to their former numbers.

HON. NATHANIEL BOYDEN made a most telling speech against the infamous Constitution, at Taylorsville, last week,—it being the week of Alexander Superior Court.

GREAT MASS Meeting in Newbern to-day. Col. Thos. S. Kenan, and other gentlemen, will address the people.

GOOD NEWS FROM ALAMANCE.—H. A. Badham has gone over to the Rads.

EXCELLENT NEWS FROM GRANVILLE.—Col. Ed. Cantwell, of cockade notoriety, has joined the scallawags.

Obed Bony (Phubus! what a name!) is the name of a Radical candidate for the Legislature in Duplin. He is, of course, a Congo.

NO NEGROES IN THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.—Thurlow Weed, a Grant man and a Republican, says:

"However blatantly members of Congress may affect southern negro suffrage in their speeches, they know enough to keep negro delegates out of the Chicago Convention. If negro delegates appear in that Convention, not even General Grant's popularity will enable us to carry Indiana."

The Washington correspondent of the Radical sheet, the Cleaveland (Ohio) Ledger, Geo. A. Townsend, makes this allusion to the Radical "heir apparent" to the congressional or miscegenation throne: "He (Wade) is a dangerous savage, full of the unquenchable fire of tyrannous revenge. Sad was the day for the party of light, of intelligence, of charity, and of the future, when this cursing and hating old man engrafted himself upon our organization. He is to us neither an ornament, an example, nor a moral power. Nature gave him no dignity, art no grace, and God no benevolence."

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

LOOK OUT for fraudulent tickets from the "boxed-up" concerns!

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

RICHMOND Co., April 11, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Some intelligence of the progress of Conservatism in this County will probably be of interest to the people of the State, especially at a time when the honor of North Carolina and her people depends upon it. The white people of this County will reject the infamous scallawag Constitution, nearly to a man, and I am informed, by some of the most respectable negroes, that they will not sustain it.

I think we shall have a perfect success over the Carpet-Baggers, and as for Mr. Holden, he's nowhere! Of course, Mr. Ashe will get all the white votes; first, because he is a Conservative, and ought to have them, and, second, because we are personally acquainted with him and know he is as pure a son of North Carolina as ever breathed upon her soil, a high-toned and accomplished gentleman, and that he is worthy the confidence of the people. I think you will find that Richmond county will do its whole duty in the coming election.

The following have been nominated in this county, for the offices designated below:

For Senate, (Moore and Richmond,)—Col. W. L. Steele.

House of Representatives.—H. Clay Wall.

Clerk Superior Court.—Capt. A. T. Cole.

Sheriff.—James H. Osborn.

Treasurer.—Wm. B. Cole.

Surveyor.—William W. Graham.

Register of Deeds.—John W. Covington.

Coroner.—W. P. McDonald.

Five Commissioners.—Col. B. F. Little, W. D. Townsend, Esq., Col. Jno. W. Leak, Col. Charles Malloy, Peter McRae, Esq.

We hope the people of Moore county will remember Col. Steele, than whom there is not a better man in North Carolina for any position, and we wish his name had been before the people sooner.

We know the people of Richmond will rally to the support of all these men, for they are all WHITE.

CONSERVATIVE.

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—At a time when justice and intelligence are sacrificed on the altar of malignity and ignorance; when, through this cause, the once proud flag of thirty-six stars is deprived of its brightest constellations, it becomes the duty of every son of time-honored Carolina, to exert himself in the battle between the institutions of years and the oppressions of neoteric insolence, though so lately, yet so destructively, in power. Our misfortunes are great, our prospects are dim, yet the former are not so great but they may be overcome, nor are the latter so dim but what they may be brightened. The causes which have led to our present deplorable condition are too numerous to be recounted, and too well known to need explanation; let us view our condition as simply bad, and then let us determine to improve it.

The political horizon is dark, and appearances advise us to be on our guard against future storms. The one dangerous thunder cloud, whose lightning, if it strike us, will be ruin, is the "new Constitution." If we would save ourselves from degradation, too painful to mention, we must vote against the new Constitution; if we would avoid poverty too certain to doubt, we must vote against the new Constitution; if we would show the humanity of a brute towards defenceless women and helpless babies, we must vote against the new Constitution. If there be a man so bitter in politics, so ignorant in judgment, as to vote for the new Constitution, to that man I extend my utmost pity, to that man I promise the curse of posterity. And lastly, Messrs. Editors, permit me to return our thanks and to assure you of the prayers of every virtuous man and woman, for the noble part which you so ably bear in the present struggle.

Truly yours, &c.,

CONSERVATIVE.

A CARD.

HENDERSON, N. C. April 14.

Gentlemen:—Since the announcement of Gen. W. R. Cox, as the regular nominee of the Conservative party for Solicitor in the 6th. Judicial District, I have determined to withdraw my name as a competitor for that position, trusting that those, who kindly proffered me their support, may think proper to aid this gentleman, at the approaching election. It was not my purpose to create any dissension by making the declaration that I did, but simply to express an appreciation of the honor which my friends were disposed to confer.

I am, very respectfully, &c.,

W. W. JONES.

NORTH CAROLINA.

We cannot resist the temptation of pointing our people, again and again, to the vision of example which is pealing from every hamlet in our sister State. Carolina is in a blaze of righteous enthusiasm. Through her press, upon the forum, and by private influence, devoted sons are as one man contributing their energies to the rescue of their race from negro enthralment. Armed at all points with the justice of a cause which finds no worthy opponents, spurred on by the threatening of a fate to which mere slavery were not a comparable indignity, and enthused by the consciousness of strength, the certainty of victory, the people are giving all their time and thought to one absorbing work.

All honor to these zealous laborers against oppression and shame! Would that in every Southern State the same spirit were ruling. For then we should have not one single fear of aught! Speedy redemption for this people would be inevitable.

We have but to repeat of the "Old North State"—First in war; first in peace; and first in the hearts of her countrymen.—Pet. Index.

A FREEDMAN'S IMPRESSIONS OF LIBERIA.—A freedman who left Charleston, for Liberia, a few months ago, writes back the most glowing accounts of matters and things there. After stating that he never felt free until he reached that Republic, and that he had selected his land for cultivation, he adds: "Of all the fruits I found on the land my tongue is unable to explain, but I will give you the names of some. First, a field of thirty acres of coffee; second, cocoanut trees in any quantity; third, lemons by the bushel; fourth, the great palm tree, the most important and precious tree in the country, from which we get nice oil, cabbage, butter; then the kernal, shingles, then cord and thread, and then, best of all, we can get wine of it to drink. All of these we have on the farm. Tell my brother Washington that this is the country to come to."

T. Tilton recently said that Michigan was "sitting with her finger on her forehead, pondering the question, 'Is the negro a man?'" She now sits with her thumb on her nose, gyrating the aforesaid finger at T. Tilton.—Boston Post.

Judge Chase expresses himself disgusted, and says Butler has made a police court of the Senate. In conversation with a gentleman to day, Curtis declared there was nothing more certain than the President's conviction.—Wash. Letter—Balt. Gazette.

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED in the MILITIA with NEGROES,—perhaps under negro officers? That is one of the issues.

RECONSTRUCTION IN THE OLD NORTH STATE—DOINGS OF THE LATE BLACK CROOK CONVENTION.

RALEIGH, April 7.

As officially announced, the figures of registration in North Carolina are: Whites, 106,721; negroes, 72,932; total, 179,653—white majority 36,789. The "election" on the question of Convention was held on the 19th and 20th of November, and resulted, as was declared, in the success of that measure by the following vote: for Convention, 93,006, against 32,961,—majority over the half of the entire registered vote, as then required, 3,179. The items making up these totals I have investigated, and found that taking these figures to be correct, this North Carolina "Convention" was called by the vote of 23,704 white men and 70,302 negroes.

"By him we meet, through him we prey,
This colored man from Africa."

Being thus called, the "Convention" met in this city on the 14th of January last, and here remained in session up to the 17th of March, a period of sixty-four days, with a per diem of $8, and a cost to the good people of the State of close on to $100,000. As to the personnel of the learned body, there is but little that is novel at this day that can be said. It was a Congressional redestruction "Convention," and that sufficiently describes it. Thirty-three out of the 120 "delegates" composing it were registrars, and, as such, certified to their own election. The gentleman from Guinea was there of course, and the North Carolinian from New England, and the representative of the bureau, and the internal revenue man, and the "mossback" and scallawag," and "carpet bagger," and, high above all, a vagabond political parson from Massachusetts to sanctify the mess with his prayers.—It didn't differ in the least, I assure you, from any of the other Crooks, save in the startling originality of its grand finale, and that was unique. Just prior to adjournment a "delegate" struck up "John Brown's Body," with great unction, lining out the song from a Freedmen's Bureau missionary hymn-book. In joined the saints and up rose the chorus. At first the negroes in the gallery looked on in amaze, but pretty soon they too began to sing and the uproar grew tremendous. 'Old John Brown' gave way to "Hail Columbia," and that in turn to "O! say yaller gal can't yer come out to-night," and then all were swamped in the roaring air of "Hog Eye," a favorite negro corn shucking melody which begins "Sal's in the garden siftin' sand" and has for its second line a rhyme too indecent to repeat. Fired by this, the saints joined hands all round and executed a war-dance to the chorus

"And a roly, sholy, bool,
An a hog-eye,
And a roly, sholy, bool,
An a hog eye.
For Sal's in de garden sifting sand," &c.

And thus did the North Carolina Congressional redestruction "Convention" disport itself in its closing hours.

THE WADE CASE.—The five column editorial which appeared in the Intelligencer a few days back, questioning the right of Mr. Wade to assume the Presidency in case of the deposition of Mr. Johnson, has awakened a deep interest among the bench and bar, not only here but throughout the country. It is conceded to be a legal argument of great ability, and notwithstanding its conclusions are pooh-poohed by Mr. Wade and his friends, it is the subject of much painful anxiety with them all.—Washington Letter—Sun.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 15, P. M.

Chief Justice Hiram Warner, of Georgia, is here. Judge Stanbery has Hemroy and the weather being inclement, his Physicians forbid exposure.

An influential meeting, in the interest of Hancock for President, and Hendricks of Indiana for Vice President, occurs in Philadelphia next week. It is understood that Pennsylvania will present this ticket to the Convention.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 15, P. M.

HOUSE.—The House went in a body to the Impeachment Court.

The Speaker reserved the right, should the session of the Court be brief, to make a regular call.

SENATE. The Senate resumed the consideration of the resolution for unlimited speeches, but postponed the matter indefinitely. A motion that the Court hereafter meet at 11 o'clock was defeated by a vote of 24 to 26.

In the absence of Judge Stanbery the defence proceeded with documentary evidence, without asking for an adjournment.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

ALBANY, N. Y. April 15, M.

The Democrats have carried this city by 2,000 majority.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 15, P. M.

President Johnson unveiled the statue of Lincoln's monument to-day.

Grant was on the side walk and declined to appear on the stand.

Impeachment was continued. Chase ruled out the President's Message, of the 21th February.

The Managers objected to it, on general grounds, and Chase rejected it, on the ground that the Senate resolutions did not require it; therefore it was not a part of the regular proceedings.

The President's Message, nominating Ewing, was admitted.

An immense mass of documentary evidence was admitted, under continued objections from Butler.

The documentary evidence was concluded and the Court adjourned.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the impeachment and deficiency appropriations. Pending the discussion of the $40,000 deficiency in Forney's account, Cameron intimated that Forney's Clerk was wrongly chargeof.

FROM VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, April 15, P. M.

The Republican nominating meeting, in Hanover county, adopted a resolution, affirming that, under the present circumstances, more stringent measures than are contained in the reconstruction acts are neither asked nor desired.

General Schofield, to-day, appointed city officers and Councilmen for Petersburg.

The Convention was engaged on Revision.

OLD THAD MUST SPEAK.

WASHINGTON, April 15, P. M.

Stevens made a statement in the House, to the effect that the Senate had determined not to hear the impeachers fully, and gave notice that he would move for night sessions in the House, to allow the Managers and others to make their speeches.

THE IMPEACHERS DISCOURAGED.

WASHINGTON, April 15, P. M.

The President's counsel had it pretty much their own way, this afternoon.

The impeachers show palpable signs of discouragement.

TERRIBLE RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT.

NEW YORK, April 15, P. M.

Sixteen miles west of Port Jervis, a broken rail threw the cars down a twenty foot embankment. Thirteen persons were killed and fifty-two wounded. Seven were burned beyond recognition.

ORDER FROM GENERAL CANBY.

HEDQ'RS 2ND. MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., April 6, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS } No. 61.

The Commanding General has received information from different sections of the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, and from members of both political parties, that combinations have been formed, or are now being formed, to prevent, delay or hinder the execution of the laws of the United States, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent persons from accepting or executing the duties of any office or employment under the United States, at the elections to be held under the authority of the law of March 2 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," and the laws that are supplementary thereto. While he is satisfied that these complaints apply to a few persons only of both parties, it is proper that all such persons should be warned that any attempt by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of the laws of the United States, under the authority of which the said election is ordered, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office, or trust, or place of confidence under the United States, as Registrar, Superintendent, Judge, Manager, Inspector or Clerk, or other employment at said election, will be amenable, not only to the penalties prescribed under the authority of the said laws, but for violation of the Act of Congress "to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31, 1861. (Statutes at Large, Volume 12, Chapter XXXIII.)

It is the duty of the civil and military authorities in both States to secure to every registered voter the full and free exercise of his right of suffrage, and this duty must be fully, faithfully and impartially performed, and the Commanding General confidently expects that the people of these States will unite in securing for each other the full and proper exercise of this franchise. But if in any District or County, or polling subdivision of either State, the election should be prevented, or the ballot-boxes or poll-lists should be destroyed, or the electors duly registered under the laws of the United States should be prevented by force or intimidation from voting, a new election will be ordered for such District, county or polling subdivision.

To the end that the laws of the United States may be duly executed; that the officers charged with conducting the elections may be protected in the discharge of their duties, and that the qualified electors may be protected in the exercise of the elective franchise, Commanders of Posts are authorized, whenever in their judgment it may be necessary, to appoint, from the officers of the army or the Freedmen's Bureau, under their command, Military Commissioners for Districts or counties within the territorial limits of their commands that are so remote from their headquarters that the powers conferred upon Post Commanders cannot be immediately or directly exercised.

The Military Commissioners so appointed are invested with all the powers of the Justices of the Peace of Districts or Counties, or the police magistrates of cities, and will be governed in the execution of their duties by the laws of the State in which they may be serving, except so far as these laws may be in conflict with the laws of the United States or with the orders issued from the Headquarters of this District; and, in addition to any troops that may be placed at their disposal, are given the command of the police force of Districts, Counties, cities and towns; and all police officers, sheriffs, constables, and other peace officers, are required to obey and execute the orders of the Military Commissioners in all such cases.

The Military Commissioners will promptly report all cases in which they assume jurisdiction, and the disposition made in each case. When parties are held for trial, either in confinement or under bail, the case will be so fully reported as to enable the Commanding General to decide whether it shall be tried by a military tribunal or be brought before a civil court.

The jurisdiction herein given to the Military Commissioners will be determined and limited by the authority heretofore delegated to Post Commanders by General Orders No. 32, of May 30, 1867, and General Orders No. 143, of December 6, 1867, and will not be considered as extending to the inhabitants in their ordinary personal relations, unless the civil authorities should refuse or fail to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to give all rightful protection to persons and property; and all persons, whether in authority or not, are required to obey and execute all lawful orders of the Military Commissioners to the same extent and in the same manner that they are required by law to obey and execute the writs of the civil magistrates.

Some of the complaints that have reached the Commanding General apply to colored voters of the two States, and to sections where they have the numerical ascendancy. To them it is proper to say that the elective franchise conferred upon them by law, carries with it no authority to restrict others in the free exercise of that right; and that while it is their duty not to regard threats or intimidations as to themselves, any combinations to prevent by force, intimidation or threats the same free exercise of this right by others will be unlawful, and will subject the offenders to the penalties prescribed by law and by military orders.—They are counselled to exercise the right of voting in a quiet and orderly manner, giving offence to no one; and after casting their votes, not to linger about the polling places, but to return quietly to their homes and to their customary avocations.

Commanding Officers will give as wide a circulation as possible to this order within the limits of their commands.

By command of Brevet Major General Ed. R. S. Canby.

Charleston, S. C., March 20, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, it is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits hereto required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election, and when used to be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.
